THE 2017 DANCE COMBINE EVENT DETAILS

FOR PARTICIPANTS

We are so excited to announce The 2017 Dance Combine taking place on May 21st in Las Vegas, NV. This event will be at Foothill High School in the main gymnasium. It is the first dance team recruiting event of its kind and will help high school dancers how to properly prepare for the college of their choice. This is an opportunity for dancers to get noticed and evaluated by top college coaches from across the nation.

The 2017 Dance Combine is more than just learning and performing routines, this is your opportunity to gain valuable knowledge and walk out of the event with a better understanding of what it takes to audition for a collegiate program. Throughout the day, participants will demonstrate their abilities through across the floor/center floor technique, and three professional master classes in Pom, Jazz, and Hip Hop. College coaches from all divisions (D1A, D1, OPEN) will evaluate and assess the athletes throughout the day. Register NOW to unlock your future and realize your potential.

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- 3 professional Master Class combos
- A complete and comprehensive skill assessment and evaluation electronic packet including coaches' feedback, suggestions for improvement, and scores in pom/jazz/hip hop
- All attending coaches' contact information
- The opportunity to have one-on-one conversations and make connections with all the coaches
- A free fashion show sponsored by The Line Up
- Tryout attire seminar by The Line Up
- Tryout look help from TRIBE 99 Choreography

About Henderson

Non-gaming hotels outnumber casino resorts in Las Vegas' southeast suburbs. An area highlight is Clark County Museum, which has restored structures from important periods in local history. Nearby, visitors can rent water and pleasure craft from the Las Vegas Boat Harbor, northeast of Boulder City. Established in 1931 to house Hoover Dam workers, Boulder City stands out for its ban on gambling.
